

It's already bad enough. Do not make it worse. It's sad that in this free country I am forced to rely on media outlets from other countries for unbiased information. Media in the USA are nothing but mouthpieces for corporate America. The FCC has an obligation to protect "our" airwaves. But, for the last 10 years the FCC has been a "Yes Man" for big corporations. Thomas Jefferson must be rolling around in his grave.